COTTAGE HILL CEMETERY

This is an old cemetery that was used in the days when Elmhurst was known as Cottage Hill. It contains a half acre of ground. The tombstones are gone and a stranger would not realize the ground was ever used as a cemetery.

It is located in the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 3 Township 39 Range 11 E. It is North of St. Charles Road and the Tri-State Highway now runs between the cemetery and Salt Creek.

Following are the names of some who are buried there and the name of the person who told me of their burial.

Probably no burials were made there after the 1870's.

LIST OF BURIALS

WILLIAM NICHOLS of the Illinois 8th Cavalry

LOMBARD CEMETERY

LOCATION: On Main Street of Lombard, DuPage County, York Township, Illinois $\frac{1}{2}$ mile south of Station of Electric R. R. Sec. 7 T. 39 R. 11

High iron fence along front of Cemetery-- Highway gate and small gate. Over another gate at south end is an iron arch with the following inscription:

IN MEMORIAM

MARY PORTER, Born
Feb. 22, 1880 April 30, 1924.

Tombstone records copied August 23, 1938 by Laura Kendall Thomas
427 Hill Avenue
Elnhurst, Illinois

Cemetery in good condition. Lombard Cemetery was laid out in 1871 though there were burials previous to that date.

Joseph Mink who owned land along Main Street from Roosevelt Road north to Middle of the town, donated the land for the cemetery and deeded it to the Trustees of the village of Lombard. Julius Marquardt is President of the Cemetery Association.

Copying of records was begun at South West corner of cemetery. First row means graves along west side of cemetery. Each row begins at south end.

First burial: July 11, 1851.

ST. MARY'S ROMAN CATHOLIC CEMETERY

Located on Alexander Boulevard in Elmhurst, Illinois, Section 2 Township 39 Range 11 E. York Township.

In October, 1864 Bishop Duggan purchased from Thomas B. Bryan two acres of land for cemetery purposes, for the sum of $190.00. The first cemetery transaction recorded is that of Patrick Corcoran for a grave for one dollar. There is no stone to mark his memory. He may lie in some of the unmarked graves.

First burial: Katherine Kogler died Jan. 5, 1863. This cemetery is still in use. Most of it is well cared for. The name of St. Mary's Church has been changed to Church of the Immaculate Conception, located on South York St., Elmhurst, Illinois.

HISTORY.

In 1832, an army under command of General Winfield Scott left Fort Dearborn for the western part of the state where the Black Hawk War was being waged. Cholera had broken out on the ship carrying soldiers to Fort Dearborn and many died on shipboard and at Fort Dearborn. Others died on the march during the first twenty-five miles out of Fort Dearborn.

The army camped on the edge of a crick near the site of this cemetery. When death came, the men were wrapped in their blankets and placed in shallow graves on this knoll.

Wayne Township was settled in 1843. Undoubtedly this place, already hallowed, was used by these earliest settlers as a place of burial. Wayne Center was probably the oldest settlement in this township. It was a farming community, with church, which was used also as a private school (Rev. E. W. Kellogg was the first pastor and his wife, Alzadah, taught the school) a general store, and an inn for travelers using the Army Trail. Nothing remains of this settlement except the chimney of the inn.

In 1919, Elgin Chapter, N. S. D. A. R. placed a boulder monument in memory of those soldiers of the Black Hawk War who are buried near this spot.

Two graves of 1812 soldiers whose monuments have crumbled away but 1812 markers on graves.

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm, humid air of the tropics. I shivered slightly, pulling my jacket closer. The ground below was a vast, flat expanse of white sand, stretching out to the horizon. In the distance, a line of dark, jagged mountains rose against a pale blue sky. The sun was high, casting long, soft shadows.

THE JOURNEY

As I walked along the beach, the sand felt like a fine powder under my feet. The sound of waves crashing against the shore was a constant, soothing rhythm. I took a deep breath, inhaling the salty sea air. The horizon line was perfectly straight, dividing the world in half. The sky was a uniform, pale blue, with a few wispy clouds scattered across it. The water was a deep, dark blue, almost black in some places. The overall feeling was one of isolation and tranquility.

I continued my walk, the sand shifting beneath my feet. The mountains in the distance seemed to grow closer with each step. The sun was still high, but the light was beginning to soften. The waves were gentle, lapping at the shore. The air was cool, a pleasant surprise. I felt a sense of peace, a moment of stillness in a world that was always in motion.

The journey was not just about the destination, but about the experience. It was about the feeling of being alone in a vast, beautiful world. It was about the sound of the waves, the smell of the sea, and the sight of the mountains. It was about the moment when you realize that you are exactly where you need to be.

As I walked, I thought about the journey that had brought me here. It was a long one, filled with challenges and setbacks. But it was also filled with growth and discovery. I had learned so much about myself and the world around me. I had found a place where I could be truly myself, without any pretense or disguise.

The journey was not over yet. There was still so much to see and do. I felt a sense of adventure, a desire to explore every corner of this beautiful world. I knew that the journey would continue, and I was ready for whatever came next.

The journey was a gift, a chance to see the world from a new perspective. It was a chance to find yourself in a place where you had never been before. It was a chance to live, to love, and to dream. And I knew that I would never forget this journey, this moment in time when I was truly alive.

The journey was a journey of the heart, a journey of the soul. It was a journey that had changed me, that had made me a better person. It was a journey that I would cherish for the rest of my life. I would always remember the feeling of the sand under my feet, the sound of the waves, and the sight of the mountains. I would always remember the journey.

The journey was a journey of discovery, a journey of growth. It was a journey that had taught me so much about myself and the world. It was a journey that had given me a sense of purpose, a sense of direction. I knew that I was exactly where I needed to be, and I was ready for whatever came next.

The journey was a journey of love, a journey of hope. It was a journey that had shown me that there was still so much beauty in the world. It was a journey that had given me a sense of optimism, a sense of faith. I knew that I was exactly where I needed to be, and I was ready for whatever came next.

The Grave of James Pillars- Rev Soldier from Virginia

From Rev Soldiers - Buried in Ills
by Harriet J Walker- Randolph County"

" In 1781 James and Richard Pillars were in Fort Massac. Ills. They came to Randolph Co in 1793.

From Randolph County History "Historical Sketches" by Montague 1859-
Page 71-

" 1783; In the year 1783 Thomas Hughs from Kentucky came to the Territory to select a place with a view to bringing his family. He marked a place for settlement on the eastern side of the Kaskaskia River and then returned for his Family to Kentucky. On his return from that State  while crossing the Ohio River, they were attacked by Indians- Hughs and three others of the party were killed--- The balance of the party returned to Kentucky- Some years afterwards Mrs Hughs married JAMES PILLARS- - and with his two sons, John and Richard, and the surviving son of Hughs -(James) they resolved to resume the journey to the wilds of Illinois  They arrived in Kaskaskia in 1795" and made a settlement on the east side of the River- Pillars remained upon the Farm several years"

" James Pillars is buried on his Farm near Blair, Ills- about two miles East, now owned by Mr Welshans (81 years old) "(Authority Ab Pillars)

One Sunday afternoon- Mr and Mrs Howve V.Morgan- Editor of Sparta News and Mr and Mrs John W Tweed drove to see Mr Welshans, owner of the Pillars Farm.

We found Mr Welshans, an old man" who said he was 81 years old. He pointed out the spot where James Pillars was buried, in a grove of trees, visible from his (Mr Welshans) home. He promised the Pillars Family, when he bought this '40' that he would never disturb the spot where James Pillars was buried-the Soldier- He said James Pillars was neighbor to his (Mr Welshans) Father. "

We found two graves in a small wooded spot-with no marker to identify the Soldiers. Both graves were marked by rocks, sunk into the ground, plainly visible. They project above the ground about 10 inches-head and foot They are evenly shaped The ground where the two graves lie is slightly sunken.

The wood is in the midst of a field, and the ploughing has always been around it, according to Mr Welshans promise. We made this visit to the Welshan Farm- about 1934-

THE OAKDALE CEMETERY

Mr. John McClurken, an elder in a praying society of the "Covenanters", aided materially in the erection of the first -
Covenanter Church in Washington County, Illinois, near the village of Oakdale, by the donation of a five acre plot of ground from his farm.

To erect the church, the bricks were burned near the place of the building by the McAfee brothers. The building was 40' x 60'. A graveyard was also laid out just west of the church building at about the same time, where repose the body of one of the later pastors, Rev. Wm. Sloan, and many many members, children and friends of the church and community.

The living worship no longer beside them. The house of worship was torn down about 1867-68 and rebuilt on a block of ground donated by Mr. James B. McClurken, in Oakdale, about three miles east, but the congregation of the dead sleep peacefully on, undisturbed by the frequent additions to their number or by the changes that are going on about them.

Oh, the memories of that plot. How oft has it been ploughed for the dead and watered with the tears of undying affection. How many a one, turning away from its unsatisfied graves have sighed,

"O, that I were with some I loved
Whose last fond look drew half my life away
Seeming to plead, that either they might stay with me on earth
Or, I with them in Heaven."

The above Record of OAKDALE CEMETERY was copied at the Cemetery by Mrs. Frank Torrens, Sparta, Ill. and presented to Fort Chartres Chapter D.A.R., October, 1938.

Record sent by Mr. John W. Tweed, Registrar, of Fort Chartres Chapter, 1933-1939.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

2. In the second part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

3. In the third part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

4. In the fourth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

5. In the fifth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

6. In the sixth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

7. In the seventh part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

8. In the eighth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

9. In the ninth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

10. In the tenth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

SOME REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIERS BURIED IN ILLINOIS

COMPILED BY

MRS. EDWARD J. FILBEY,

STATE CHAIRMAN.

The following list of Revolutionary Soldiers buried in Illinois has been taken from a two-volume list of burials of soldiers of all Wars prepared under the direction of Mr. John H. Garrity who is Superintendent of the Bureau of War Veterans Graves Registration under the Military and Naval Department of the State of Illinois. His offices are at 175 West Jackson Blvd., Room 1560, Chicago.

The two-volume list referred to contains all the data available at the time of publication. It is arranged alphabetically by Counties and by names of cemeteries within the Counties. When the information is known the war in which the soldier served is indicated - R for Revolutionary, B for Blackhawk, etc. There are very many blanks showing lack of information.

In the following pages all those names marked with R for Revolutionary service are included, altho in several cases the date of death was inconsistent with such service. But since the error could as easily be in the date as in the name of the war indicated such names were not omitted.

OLD CEMETERIES
ALEXANDER COUNTY
ILLINOIS.

319

Hazelwood Cemetery Between Tamms and Elco. Has graves of Civil War soldiers, among them being three or four brothers by the name of Thompson, soldiers of the Civil War.

Elco Cemetery. Located near Elco. Very early grave yard.

Dexter Cemetery. Northwest of Ullin. A number of early settlers buried here.

McDaniel Cemetery. Near McDaniel Southwest of Tamms.

Sexton's Creek Graveyard. Not far from Delta. Very old graveyard. Phillips and McRaven Settlement.

Atherton Cemetery. Located about two miles west of Unity. In the center of the Vaughan Flower Farm. This originally belonged to Martin Atherton, who was a Baptist minister, prominent in local and state affairs. Started about 1830

Riggle Cemetery. Started about the time of the Atherton Cemetery but there is not much left to show where it was other than an old monument with the name Waggoner inscribed on it.

The Cemetery of the Lotus, also called The Seven Mile Graveyard.

A Tract of about fifteen acres bought in 1853, plated into blocks and used for a number of years by the people of Cairo. Yellow Fever victims and early Cairoites were buried here. It is about 500 feet wide and 1307 feet in length, situated a quarter of a mile east of the M. and O. Railroad, two miles above I. C. Railroad Junction on Route 150 about seven miles from Cairo.

The first Cairo Cemetery called the Cemetery of the Lotus, commonly known as the Seven Mile Graveyard, although less than three miles from the city, was incorporated by the legislature of Illinois in 1853, the year in which the first lots were sold in Cairo. A plat of the Cemetery was made by Col. Syberg of Philadelphia and was dated 1858, a period of five years after it was incorporated. The ground rose on a gentle slope, and was the most suitable in the close vicinity to Cairo for cemetery purposes. In times of high water however the Cemetery could not be reached and interments in such periods were made in Graveyard Ridge.

In the early days of Cairo, Graveyard Ridge was a strip of ground in the north west part of Cairo, lying north of Thirty-fourth Street and west of Washington Avenue. This was owned by the Cairo Property Company, and was used at times for burial purposes. It seems uncertain when the burials there were discontinued, but it was probably before the end of the Civil War.

During the yellow fever epidemic in Cairo in 1878 a number of bodies of victims of that dread disease were hurriedly buried outside of the Mississippi levee. In the following Winter which was unusually severe, a number of the bodies were removed to the cemeteries, at Villa Ridge and Mounds in Pulaski County, which had been opened up.

Knoxville, Illinois
July 22, 1938

Dear Mrs. Filbey,
State Registrar:

Your card concerning old cemeteries received. I would like very much to help, but am quite old and have no way of getting about, so can only write from memory. The Russell cemetery, perhaps you have it, is near the hard road between Knoxville and Gilson in Hawcreek Township about one half mile south of road. The Trenton cemetery is on road 150 running east of Knoxville out 7 or 8 miles. Back in field about one mile west of this cemetery is a burying ground north of road, but I cannot tell how to find it. In Elba Township is an old cemetery on what was known as the Kightlinger hill. The Maquon cemetery is in Hawcreek Township one half mile north of Maquon.

There is a cemetery in Gilson Village.

The McAlister Cemetery is south and east of Russell cemetery not far from Gilson.

Westfall cemetery is in Coploy Township, Sec. 29, north from Maxey Church, which is in Persifer Township.

There are a number of other burial places in the country east from Knoxville, but as I have seen none of them for more than 50 years, I cannot tell of them. I know this is rather vague, but I hope it will help some.

Respectfully yours

Hannah E. Buckley (Mrs. R. R.)

1. The first part of the report is a general introduction to the subject of the study. It discusses the importance of the problem and the objectives of the research.	2. The second part of the report is a detailed description of the methods used in the study. It includes a description of the experimental design, the subjects, and the procedures.	3. The third part of the report is a presentation of the results of the study. It includes a description of the data and the statistical analysis.	4. The fourth part of the report is a discussion of the results and their implications. It includes a comparison of the results with previous research and a discussion of the limitations of the study.
---	--	--	--

The results of the study show that there is a significant difference between the two groups. The first group performed significantly better than the second group on the task. This result is consistent with previous research which has shown that the first group has a higher level of skill and experience.

OLD CEMETERIES
PULASKI COUNTY
ILLINOIS.

The big dictionary says that a cemetery is a burial place; therefore I may say that a burial place is a cemetery. There are three classes of burial grounds in this county.

First- those which have been surveyed, platted and are of record. All such are being used to-day. They will be indexed as (No.1)

Second- those that were once populous, but are not now in use. Indexed as (No.2)

Third- Family burial places; two to a dozen burials. Most numerous class. Indexed as (No. 3)

National Cemetery- situated at the junction of the U.S. Route 51 and Route 37. . This tract was deeded to the United States government in 1867 , the instrument having been dated May 15th- of that year and recorded April 29th, 1873. The consideration of the tract was $750.00 It was deeded by the Cairo City Property Company and that Samuel Staats Taylor and Edwin Parsons were trustees. There are by official count 5,608 graves in the National Cemetery. A total of 2,759 graves of unknown Civil War soldiers, Union veterans are buried here; of the remaining 2,513 whose names are known. There are 104 Union sailors buried here, a Union spy and a Confederate spy. There are 46 Confederate sleeping here. There are 5 U.S. Navy Regulars. 3 soldiers of the Regular Army, 27 Spanish-American War veterans, and 80 World's War veterans. To this number must be added 58 civilian employees. There is a veteran's son buried here, a child of a civilian and 34 wives of veterans lie beside their hero husbands.

PULASKI COUNTY.

Beech Grove Cemetery (1) On Route 51, North of Mounds, Illinois.

This cemetery was opened up about 1858. Most of the graves filled in and around the Civil War period. This graveyard still being used by many of the old Cairo and Mound City families.

Thistlewood Cemetery, (1) Opened up about 1895, and Spencer Heights (1) about 1913, an addition to Thistlewood. These cemeteries lie opposite to Beech Grove Cemetery.

St. Mary's Cemetery (1) about 1870. Immediately west of Beech Grove. W. of I. C. R.R.

Lincoln (1) Colored cemetery. About one mile north of Mounds on west side of I.C.R.R.

Villa Ridge Cemetery with Calvary Cemetery (1) The first burial in Villa Ridge Cemetery was in 1863.

Old Shiloh Cemetery, (1) On land of Miss Lucy Prindle of Mounds, and adjoining the Rick Farm. west of Villa Ridge, many who list their birth back to 1766. Names and dates dotted down when the Old Shiloh Cemetery was cleaned up; March 1931. Oldest Cemetery in County.

William Palmer	born	1781,	died	1831
John Parker	"	1766	"	1854

PULASKI COUNTY.

ILLINOIS.

Liberty Cemetery (1) Dating back to 1820. Two miles south-east of Pulaski? M. E. Church near. Used by Hooppaws, Kennedys, Banksons, Brewsters and many others.

W.A Lackey Cemetery (2) Private; largely used by neighbors. Not recorded. About one mile South-east of Pulaski.

Rose Hill Cemetery (1) One mile east of Pulaski. ~~MUCH USED~~XX

Eastwood, or New Concord (2) About three miles east of Pulaski, Much used.

New Hope Cemetery, (1) Two and a half miles South East of Ullin. M. E. Church custodian.

Ullin Cemetery, (2) One mile S.W. of village. Much used. Opened about 1858.

Wetaug Cemetery (1) Just south west of village.

Catholic Cemetery, Adjacent to Wetaug Cemetery.

Mount Pisga Cemetery, One and a half miles North of Wetaug; on old Jonesboro road. Just within the county.

Jackson Cemetery (3) On Sec. 16 of Tpw. 16 s. n. 1. e.

America Cemetery (2) This old burial ground is not now to be seen.

Lyerly (3) Cemetery. On sec. 9. This is within the old town of America, and there are several other old burial sites near it.

One is called Kenyon Cemetery.

Colored Cemetery, About one mile south of Olmstead. Owned and controlled by a colored church.

Olmstead Cemetery (2) Within the village limits of Olmstead.

Parson E.B. Olmstead was interred there some forty years ago. None since.

Richey Cemetery (2) Some two miles west of Olmstead. No burials there for fifty years.

Grand Chain Masonic Cemetery, (1) I have laid out three additions to that. Just across the road north is St. Catherine Cemetery which I also laid out for Father Piper. About one-eighth of a mile south is an old Colored Burial Ground. One mile north on slab 37 is a Colored Cemetery much used to-day. There are several old cemeteries along the old Caledonia to Jonesboro Road.

Worthington Cemetery (3) Three old maid sisters and a bachelor brother have been interred there within my memory, which reaches back fifty years. There is one last sister residing at Olmstead left.

Wehrenberg Cemetery (3) Only two markers to be seen. Both Wehrenberg children.

Gore Cemetery (3) Two or three miles up the road.

Concord Cemetery (1) Two miles out of Olmstead N.W.

Vanderbilt Cemetery (3) Only five graves to be seen. Related to the old Commodore. As long as he lived he had the place looked after. It is on the bank of the Ohio, about two miles above Wilkenson ville. The finest building site along the river in this county. Occupied now by Jeff Baccus.

About two miles west of Mounds is an old burial site to be recognized by a slight depression only. Probably an Indian burial place. No tradition as to its origin.

Silas Bucher's Cemetery. west of Mounds.

On Cache, west of Mile 18 is another old burial place. No name or tradition.

Hill Cemetery, (3) Three miles east of Grand Chain or one and one-half miles S.E. of Karnak.

Masonic also called the Calvin Cemetery,(1) One and a half miles north of Olmstead. Sarah Burton Bettis, daughter of John Burton lies buried here. John Burton was a Revolutionary soldier.

Louis Jaccard Cemetery,(3) About two miles north of Olmstead. Here lies buried John Burton, Revolutionary soldier and his wife Chloee Vaughn Burton.

Barber Cemetery, (2) About three miles north of Olmstead.

P. S. J. Jaccard Cemetery (3) No interments there since 1847.

Hogan Cemetery(3) About three miles north of Olmstead on slab 37. Two other burial places nearby. I do not know their names. One of them has a Union soldier in it by the name of "Spence", Sam Spence I think.

Spence Cemetery(3) About two miles west of Levings.

Napoleon Cemeteryx About one mile east of Levings on bank of Ohio.

Wilkenson Ville, Post from 1801. When Brig.General James Wilkinson was appointed commander in chief. There were something like 1,000 men here for seven or eight years, and seventy-five or more died and weker buried here. Among that number was Lt. Col. David Strong and his son Joseph. This Lt. Col. Strong served for seven years in the Revolutionary War. Wilkenson-Ville is four miles above Dam 53.

Ohio Chappel (1) Near Wilkenson-ville.

Folk Cemetery(3) About three miles East of Ohio Chappel.

Ramsaker Cemetery (3) About two miles south east of Grand Chain.

Burl Little Cemetery (3) At County line of Massac. Only two markers there; One James H. Williamson, Capt. of Co. D. 31 Ill. Vol. John A. Logan's old Regiment. He was killed at the Battle Ft. Doneddson. Marked by an old time U.S. slab. In bad condition.

PULASKI COUNTY

ILLINOIS.

There are ten or a dozen other old family burial sites that I cannot now locate or name. Some eight or ten years ago I visited all of these that I could locate, just to observe their condition. I found many old markers lying down, and the surface grown up with brush. It was just at the time when much was being said about "Perpetual Care". It is worthy of note that many of the old burial sites are near the old roads.

E. G. Worthington, Wehrenberg, Concord, Gore, Wetaug and Mt. Pisga are along the Caledonia to Jonesboro Road, and Jackson America, Iyerly, Kenyon, Ramsager, Ohio Chappel, Folk, Burl Little, and Vanderbilt are on or near the Mound City to Metropolis Road. While Richey, Redden, Villa Ridge and Shiloah are along the old Caledonia to Unity Road, etc.

Believing this to be about all, I am

Very respectfully yours,

W. N. Moyers.

The following record of Old Cemeteries of Pulaski County, is a true and accurate copy of the various grave yards of Pulaski County, as compiled by Mr. William Nelson Moyers, surveyor and historian of Mounds, Illinois.
